Customer Reviews

A woodman begins to chop down a huge tree in the jungle but, the wood is very hard. The heat of the day and the lull of the insects put him to sleep. In his dreams he is visited by the animals, a child, and insects of the forest who explain their interdependency and the importance of the . They ask him to look at them with new eyes, with new understanding. When he awakens from his dream, he picks up his axe to resume his labor, looks at the animals and a child, pauses, puts down his axe, and leaves. Beautifully told. Wonderful illustrations.

I recently made a trip to the rain forest off Iquitos. The Kapok tree is very present by itself and through its products. This brief book acquaints you with this important actor of the . Recientemente visité la selva Amazónica a partir de Iquitos. El Capoquero está muy presente tanto físicamente como a través de sus productos. Este pequeño libro introduce al viajero a este importante actor del as.
