Customer Reviews

My name is Phillip. I am a student currently attending a California community college. I have been reading numerous books that touch on the internet and education, specifically the pros and cons of tying youtube into high school curriculum. This book is absolutely pathetic. I am offended and disappointed, first, because I found this book in my college's library. Secondly I am offended because this book was even published. Shame on you Cengage. Shame on you for putting out such a poor product. This book is driven my arguments built on false arguments. The writing is poor. And it sets the bar extremely low in any kind of critical thinking for any reader. Please do not purchase this title, or any other title in the Issues That Concern You series of books. say these titles made me laugh.)Date RapeDietingDiscriminationDownloading MusicFoster
