Customer Reviews

This book is good but not very fun to read. It is boring and tiring sometimes with so much repetitive exercises. I recommend it, though, to those who are not familiar with English and need to practice the language. My Citizenship test was really easy and I would have passed even if I had studied only the USCIS flash cards. But then again, I may have been plain lucky :) Took one star out because it is not much fun to read.

Many practice exams make this book a plus for those who really want to be prepared for any of the five different citizenship exams. You will not be caught off guard and I will use it for teaching my students.

Didn't book was from 2005. Some information is outdated. Let you know in the future how well the info. worked

i did not receive the book due to a mistake in my address corrected address: 5192 nw 5th Miami, FL 33126
