Making War/Making Peace (vol 3 Of Defeating Terrorism/Developing Dreams : Beyond 9/11 And The Iraq War)

Synopsis

This new series aims to address the questions and concerns of two of the most important events of modern life--the tragedy of 9/11 and the shock and awe of the second Gulf War. Each volume analyzes key aspects of political, cultural, and economic issues in the Iraq conflict through the essays of foreign policy experts, theorists, and first hand witnesses. Eleven original essays explore the impact of the Iraq War on young adults. Questions addressed include how has the war has shaken our sense of security, fairness, and predictability? What are the major positions of those parties who are either for or against the war? How can the United States and the world move on and achieve a design for living that might someday leave war behind?

Customer Reviews

Although this book (series) is geared towards high school students, there is something in here for everyone. The essays vary in their subject matter and style, and anyone can learn something from reading them. I highly recommend this series if you are at all interested in the history and current situation of our relationship with the Middle East, and why 9/11 and the 2 Iraq war(s) occurred.
